We claim the power You have promised.	1 Father, when You sent Christ to us, we received a wholly undeserved gift. Because You have given us this gift, motivate us to serve You; to faithfully use our spiritual gifts to serve You...to demonstrate Your grace.
2 Not just today, but everyday, in all of our situations &amp; circumstances we worship You. Help us to see new manifestations of Your blessings in our life. We Praise You; the source of all good things.	3 Lord, give us the insight and courage to pour ourselves out upon those who need us. Open our eyes that we may see them. Though they surround us, we can't see them w/out You.	4 Just as the Israelites had to leave Egypt and the past behind to move into God's blessing, we too must pass through gates leading to new beginnings. Lord, faith &amp; courage to move forward.	5 Ash Wednesday. We want to enter into the passion of Jesus. We prepare to receive His light. We prepare to celebrate the death and resurrection of Christ our Savior.	6 If anyone reading this is weary, pray about taking some time to be refreshed in God's presence. Father, just as Jesus took time to be in Your presence, allow me to do likewise.	7 This prayer message is for everyone who is now in the midst of troubles. Lord, grant trust in You; faith that we can lean on You and find shelter from our trouble. We commit our troubles to You. Faith	8 Thank God for family, relatives and friends. Pray for healing of troubled relationships. Pray for power to love difficult people. Pray that God empowers you to be a peacemaker.
9 Lord Jesus, we worship You, the one and only true foundation of love. Let us desire above all things to have Christ's likeness established in ourselves and every believer. Flood our lives with Your holy presence.	10 Dear Lord, when we run out of courage, be there for us. When I am empty, assure me that I can count on You to fill my emptiness until truly, my cup will run over. Empower me to do what seems impossible.	11 How often has God opened doors for us but we were not willing to follow Him into new plans He had for us. Father, help us to let go of the old in order to take hold of the new. Courage to leave our comfort zone.	12 Lord, when You call on me and I fail to respond, Your call becomes more faint each time. My ears more dull. Help me to return to my personal relationship with You. Let me hear You again. Make me pliable.	13 Lord, do You want us to build something; launch out into a new ministry. Give us vision, faith &amp; courage. Like Nehemiah, with a sword in one hand and a hammer in the other, empower/Your Kingdom.	14 A characteristic of a Child of God is constant movement, change. Lack of movement to spiritual maturity raises concerns if that person really knows God. Father, kindle my desire to hunger &amp; seek after You.	15 Romans 12:1-2 tells us God wants one thing: us. Our lives, not grain or dead animals. Ourselves as living sacrifices. Pray for relationship with our Holy God. Pray about totally offering Him your heart without reservation.
16 During this Lenten season, we pray for renewal of our lives; to help me use my life to reflect Your glory. Lord, bless us and protect us from evil and bring us to everlasting live with You.	17 Today, let us rejoice and remember all of the times God has been there for us when we needed Him and He delivered us. Now Father, help us to enter into new things/to perceive new beginnings.	18 Dear Lord, we fall at Your feet and know that unless You touch us, anoint us, we are powerless. Lord, I know how much I need You; touch the core of my heart. Life! Power!	19 We cannot discover the truth about Christianity by remaining an aloof spectator. Easter invites us to get in the game. Pray about how Jesus wants you to get involved as His servant.	20 Thank you Lord for the first day of spring. As the earth anticipates the blossoms of renewal, we open ourselves to bring about a spring-like renewal in our spiritual life. Spiritual blossoms!	21 Father, when I look at my faith and actions as good, don't let me be satisfied. Awaken my hunger to follow Your call to the next level. Make me desperate to grow in vision/faith/ministry.	22 Ask the Lord to touch your heart today. He has the power to transform you and the power to met your every need by the power of His unmeasurable grace. Invite Him into your life.
23 Let us daily grow in understanding of the riches hidden in Christ.  30 Indwelling Christ, renew Your presence in my heart today as I worship. Life! Power!	24 Lord, remind us that we not need fear the darkness of evil around us. Your light overcomes.  31 Holy Spirit, You seek us out even when we do not seek You. Come and be our lifetime guest.	25 Father, there are times of challenge for all of us and Your Church. Let us not retreat or slumber. Give us fresh faith, wisdom and vision to claim all that has been lost. No doubt and weakness in our prayers.	26 Lord, I accept that You have great plans for me. Help me to see what one thing I need to do to unlock my journey to the next phase. May my obedience be the blossom leading to much fruit.	27 Lord, Your blessings wait for us as water dammed up for release. Lord, let them flow into my life in order that I may generously pour them out on those around me. Let me be a vessel of blessing to Your	28 Pray. Father, reveal Your nearness and draw me into greater intimacy with You. When I fear, reveal Your love and give me courage and strength. When I become distracted by the things of the world, awaken me.	29 Christian Sisters Conv. in Nelsonville.
