Let us not lean on our own understanding but let us turn to You for understanding. We trust You for victory in times of shifts/changes.	2 Lord, lift our burdens and lead us in a better way than we have know in the past. My walk is obscured by my problems. Help me to see the victory in what You have promised. You are my strength. I rejoice!	3 Lord, I know that You have plans for me; plans for good and not for disaster. Today, let me listen to those plans. Help me to conquer the fear that keeps me from moving forward. I need Your power. Help Lord!
4 Let us remember as we worship this morning, the Lord wants to visit our life. Let us invite His mighty, mighty power into our worship service. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.	5 Dear Father, bless us that we may live without fear. Assure us that You have overcome everything in the world. Mold our worry into the assurance that You are our good shepherd.	6 Dear Lord, whenever I get too busy and too taken up with the world around me, help me to see what You are doing around me. Make me a part of Your plans. Let me know Your will for me. Praise!	7 Father, I pray for America. Raise up more Christian leaders who depend on Your wisdom and power. Give Your church courage, vision and commitment to glorify Your Holy name.	8 Pray for the leaders who are preparing the Summer Camp programs at their churches. Pray for the Holy Spirit to lead students and counselors. Pray that lives are transformed	9 Dear Father, give us new compaassion for people around us. Use us up for Your glory and then refresh us, refill us that we may give You more glory. Continue Your work in us today.	10 Pray for God to raise up more people in our Unity churches to lead and teach Bible studies. God honors the teaching of His Word. Pray and ask if God is calling you to this mighty ministry.
11 Thank God for Mothers who serve Him. Pray for mothers who now nurture their children in a culture hostile to family values. Pray for families, faith, hope, commitment & love.	12 Lord, sometimes the cares and activity of each day create a distance in our relationship. Help me to see that Your promise is like a garden spring in a dry desert. Let me experience Your Hope.	13 Lord, today, I need Your confirmation. Am I still firmly on a path to accomplish the mission you have for me. Teach me Lord. Give me wisdom that I may know the way. Light my path.	14 Pray for all who are graduating from schools and colleges. Plant in their minds a desire to continue to grow by reading and studying the Bible. Lord, work in the lives of all young people.	15 Lord, plant within my heart the desire to help someone who can never repay me. For such was Your work Lord Jesus. You did for us what we could never repay. Empower me.	16 Lord, perhaps, I have sensed changes You desire me to make. Perhaps, this is the day I should begin. I already know what You desire for me. Out with procrastination. I know You will be with me.	17 Pray: Lord, teach me to forgive and let go of the past pain & hurts. Free me now from anger, resentment and bitterness. Bring healing to all of Your children enslaved by their past.
18 Dear God, we praise You for You have created us and everything around us. We praise You! Thank You for sharing with us the beauty of what You have created. Thank You for sending Christ to save us from our sins.	19 Parents, pray for your children each and every day. Pray that God will protect them and give them power to stand against temptation. Pray for their passion and love for God and that they learn to know Jesus early.	20 True story. A four year old told her mom how much she wanted a puppy and prayed for one. The next morning, a beautiful terrier on her doorstep. Lord, give us the trust & faith of a four year old when we pray.	21 How beautiful are the feet of those who share the gospel with those who are deaf and blind to God's truth. Pray frequently for our missionaries who labor to share the gospel as directed by Mat. 28:19-20.	22 Read John 15. Father, You are the vine and we the branches. We cannot bear fruit unless we remain connected to & have relationship with You. Lord, guide us and our churches to remain in You and to bear fruit.	23 Father, You have promised us a spring of living water, yet we often settle for worldly waters which satisfy only temporarily. Pray for the strength and resolve to seek the fullness of God's power in your life.	24 We get caught up in the busyness of our daily routines. Lord, stop us in our tracks and impress upon each of us the need to build up one another; the need to do life together. Lord, open the eyes of my heart.
25 Father, help us to overcome all that interferes with our ability to truly praise and worship You. Fill us with a passion that strives for holiness. Multiply our ability to love our neighbor.	26 Lord, help me to identify the things that I fear in order that I may conquer them. Out with fear! Lord, You tell me not to be dismayed by fear for You are there with me always. You empower me to overcome.	27 Dear Father, the Gospel is Your message unto us. Give us the good sense to realize this and to go to Your Gospel to learn the great mysteries of life and how You work among us, even today.	28 We know and daily meet many people who don't know God's love. They may only see a tiny beam of light in the distance piercing the darkness. Father, help me to amplify that small beam of light.	29 Lord, when opportunity presents itself for me to witness, out with fear! Empower me to speak with boldness knowing that I have power when You are with me. Knowing a right time to say what I need to say.	30 Lord, show me this week how I can be a light to one of my neighbors. Bring to mind a need I can meet; an act of kindness. Help me to see what I can do to let them see You in my life. Love your neighbor.	31 Pray: Dear God, here I am. Am I giving You my best? Awaken me from my slumber. Help me embrace the strength that comes from giving myself to Jesus and to really allow Him to reveal His plan for me.
