Pray about slowing down your pace to allow Christ's peace into your Christmas. Make this a special time to pray about overcoming doubts and fears.	2 Begin to pray about the magnificent event of Christmas which we will celebrate soon. Praise God that He send Jesus in human form to reconcile you and me and the entire world to Him. Lord, passion for sharing this.	3 Pray about your spiritual journey in life. Are you moving fast, slow or are you at a standstill? Pray God will help you identify where you are and where He wants you to be. Pray for God's power and wisdom.	4 Pray that God will open your eyes; that you will see and understand God's global mission to share the gospel with all people groups in the world. Then God's Kingdom will be fully established for all time.	5 Father, bless us with the understanding that Christmas is not just lights, tinsel and trimmings. It is also love, joy, hope, peace and adoration of the one whose birth we are invited to celebrate.	6 It does little good for a person to know about God and live without loving and glorifying Him. Pray about how you respond to God. Pray for passion to love God more each day. Hallelujah, Christ was born!
7 2nd Sun. in Advent. Peace! Lord, make us channels of Your peace. Help us to be messengers of our Lord's Gospel of peace. To Him be the glory. For His blessings and peace we pray.	8 Focus your quiet time on Matt. 1:20. Pray about slowing down your pace to allow Christ's peace into your Christmas. Make this a special time to pray about overcoming doubts/fears.	9 Use John 16:33 to help focus your quiet time. Pray about overcoming self-centeredness and an understanding of whatever makes you hesitate to share the gospel of Jesus Christ.	10 Pray about the passage of Isaiah 11:6. Pray for peace and harmony in your church and in your life. Pray that the scales of unforgiveness be removed from our eyes & hearts.	11 Pray about the message in Col. 3:15. Dear God, may Your peace through Christ fill my heart and touch everyone in my family. May we have the wisdom to lift each other up.	12 Read and meditate on Proverbs 17:1 and what it means to you. Pray for clear focus on what really matters in life. Pray God reveals to you unfruitful things that waste your time and life.	13 Read 2 Peter 3:13-14. Pray about how Christ came and died to settle our sin debt. Pray that God might reveal those areas in your life that do not reflect the reality of Christ.
14 3rd Sunday in Advent. Joy! Gracious and loving God, we count it our greatest joy of knowing You. Help me to be a joyous witness for You in Jesus most precious name.	15 Meditate on Isaiah 35:1-2. Pray about the moral wilderness in America that robs so many people of true joy. Pray that people in our country will humble themselves/find His joy.	16 Meditate on Luke 2:8-11. Lord, forgive me for not being a better example of joyous living. Help me see past my own struggles and know the joy that comes from living out God's purpose.	17 Focus on Phillipians 2:1. Pray about keeping your mind in proper perspective as the hectic pace of the season seeks to draw you away from the reason we celebrate. Pray gratefully. Gratitude to God..	18 Read 1 Thes. 5:16-18. Pray for people you may know whose joy this Christmas will be punctuated by grief, bad health and other bad circumstances. Pray God's grace will give them joy.	19 Meditate on 1 Peter 4: 12-13. Pray for the thousands of Christians over the world who are persecuted, suffering and dying rather than give up their faith. Praise God that they will rejoice in God	20 Realize today that you are valuable to the Kingdom of God. Praise God for His love and direction. Pray for the anointing of God on your life...for His direction in all of your actions today. Yes! God reigns!
21 4th Sunday in Advent. Love! Loving God, help us to love one another as Christ loves us. Give us the strength to go out and share the love You show us each and every day.	22 Lord Jesus, our hearts break for those who have lost their jobs. They have serious financial needs. Lord, touch the hearts of Brethren to help those with financial needs.	23 Lord Jesus, our hearts break for the children of those whose jobs have been cut. Lord, touch the hearts of all Brethren to connect with people around them who have financial needs.	24 Luke 2:7. Lord God, words fail us when we try to express thanks for Jesus Christ. Help our lives express gratitude. Thank You for this tangible expression of Your Love. We celebrate!	25 Luke 2:13. Oh God, what can we possibly give back for the gift of Your Son, Jesus? We can only give ourselves. Receive us as we are, yet, change us into what we should be; to be part of this redemption	26 Since I do not know when Jesus will return or when I will draw my last breath, let us pray that we are always prepared. Growing in God's Word and with a fresh relationship with Jesus.	27 If we want to serve God and live a holy life, we can't watch ungodly TV programs and movies. Pray for vision, wisdom and strength to make good entertainment choices. You/your family.
28 Lord Jesus, speak to us as we worship. Open our ears that we may hear how You want us to grow in the new year. What do You want us to change? We pray that You will bless us with vision.	29 Lord, when the enemy attacks us, give us the strength and faith to stand firm...to know that You will honor Your promises to rescue us. Lord Jesus, I am Your child. Yes! I am a child of the King. I praise You.	30 Pray for your children, grandchildren and other children you know. Begin to pray God's will for their lives from the time they are infants. Pray about every aspect of their lives and for Christian maturity.	31 Yearend is a good time to take inventory of your progress to spiritual maturity. How much have you grown this year? Pray for a clear vision of what you need to do and change to grow your walk with God.	PRAYER FOCUS During this Advent season this month, do make a special effort to spend quiet time with God each and every day.
