1 Lord, we could praise You for many undeserved blessings. But today, we praise You because You are the God of the universe and You deserve our worship, in spirit and in truth.	2 Lord Jesus, send us Your healing “rain”. Let it fall upon us and heal broken spirits, infirm bodies and meaningless lives. Let it cleanse and prepare the soil of our churches for Your Word.	3 Out of many readers, someone reading this is hurting. Please know that the Lord knows where you are and what you are experiencing. Invite Him in and ask for help. You also have our prayers.	4 Father, I pray that the light of Your revelation will illumine America’s churches. Remove unproductive vines. Prune, purify & restore. Raise up those who will shepherd in Your Word.	5 Lord, I sense that You are doing new things among us and in the Body of Christ. Calm our fears of change and give us vision to embrace restoration. Help us see new paths now prepared.	6 Lord Jesus, we are concerned about the falling away we see in America. Empower Your saints to stand against the evil that would consume us. Let us not grow weary we know You will triumph	7 How often has God opened doors for us but we were not willing to follow Him into new plans Father, help us to let go of the old in order to take hold of the new. Courage to leave our comfort zone.
8 Daylight Savings Time begins today. Perhaps another of hour to praise and worship You. Let it remind us to use our time wisely; to make You the master of each of our days saving quiet time for You.	9 Lord, whenever my faith is tested, somehow, remind me of Your promise that You will never forsake me. Lord, I know that You can perform miracles. How foolish to doubt.	10 We cannot discover the truth about Christianity by remaining an aloof spectator. Easter invites us to get in the game. Pray about how Jesus wants you to get involved as His servant.	11 Lord, I know that You have great plans for me. Remove the obstacles, problems, negativity that blocks my vision of what You desire for me. Renew my mind for great new things.	12 Lord, our culture, entertainment, institutions have slowly been claimed by sin and immorality. Let us shepherd one another to keep from slipping into making wrong choices.	13 Pray for your children, grandchildren, children in your church. Pray for them lest they be snatched away by godlessness. Pray for adults to nurture them. Jesus, claim them early.	14 Lord, help us to examine our relationship with money and material possessions. Please give us wisdom to control our possessions instead of them controlling us. Help us to be cheerful givers
15 Pray for your pastor today as he/she leads you along the path of praise into mighty worship. Pray that the Holy Spirit will sweep away all that hinders worship of our mighty God. He deserves all our attention/worship.	16 The times we live in cause many to live in fear. Financial fears, fear of illness, terrorism, fear of the unknown. Thank you Jesus for taking fear out of the darkness and into the light. You are my rock, strength and hope.	17 Lord, I pray for the church; I pray for my church. I pray that we will be joined together in unity and that we will excel in encouraging one another. Help each of us to find that place for which You equipped us.	18 Lord Jesus, I hunger to know You more fully. I stand in the gap and plead for wisdom and counsel only You can give. Teach me Your ways and strengthen me by confirming Your presence.	19 Forgive me Lord, for allowing things to steal away my quiet time with You. There is an emptiness when I fail to be in communion with You. You sustain my every breath, the air I breathe; Holy presence.	20 Lord, make us sensitive to those who are grieving. Make us instruments of Your grace to those who grieve. Teach us to be fully dependent on You when we minister to others. To be Your instruments.	21 Lord Jesus, You commanded us to love one another. How beautiful it is when we live in unity. Unity in our families, our church and as a people. We pray You will empower us to cast out hate and unforgiveness.
22 We open ourselves to You as we worship, that You might change us in some way. If there is anyone here who feels distant from You, may they be filled with Your river of life. May it overflow unto us also.	23 Dear Lord, give us all hearts for prayer and worship; not just today in church but every day of the week. We come to you with prayers and petitions that You will bless us, our families & all who profess you as Lord.	24 Father, there are times of challenge for all of us in Your Church. Let us not retreat or slumber. Give us fresh faith, wisdom and vision to claim all that has been lost. No doubt and weakness in our prayers.	25 Lord, we pray for the strength to break through strongholds in our life that keep us from obedience to what God wants for us. Give us faith and resolve to live in obedience to God who deserves and demands it.	26 Pray: Father, let me be content with what I have. Help me to overcome envy of others; the endless pursuit of more and more material possessions. Lord, You are more than enough to meet our needs.	27 Someone reading this has tried over and over again to overcome some specific sin in their life. Jesus, please help us realize we cannot do it on our own. Here is my hand Lord, only You can lead me to the higher ground.	28 Synodical Committee meets today at Hus Encampment. Please pray for the Committee members and pastors. (See Brethren Journal) Pray that the manifest power of the Holy Spirit will control their agenda.
29 Father, we come to you with open hands. We recognize our neediness and brokenness and surrender our control to You. We reach out to receive the joy that You, our Father want to share with us.	30 Pray for our missionaries going out into the world to share the gospel. Pray for any missionaries you know. Pray about unreached people who may be living in your community. Be open to what God reveals.	31 It is every Christian’s privilege and responsibility to be involved in the ministry of their church. Pray about how you are a minister of Christ. (2 Cor.4:1): about being a participator, not a spectator.
