PRAYER FOCUS Pray about this: as long as there are people in the world not worshipping God, there is a need for mission. God desires all people to worship Him.	What breaks your heart? Move in that direction for here you will find your sense of purpose and the mission God has set aside for you.	1 Pray today that each of us might humble ourselves and desire to know God more intimately. Pray that our faith might expand and grow to embrace a God bigger than the one we know now. God is great!	2 Just as Jesus is willing and able to forgive us our sins, pray that that might wash over into your life as you deal with people who may have wronged and hurt you. Pray understanding and for the power to forgive.	3 Pray for perceptive eyes to see God working in your life. Pray that you are watchful and obedient when He closes doors. Pray that you sense His call when He opens doors for you to move forward.	4 Pray that you might clearly understand the difference of being “in church” and being “the church.” Pray that God will reveal to you those things that hinder your growth to spiritual maturity.	5 It is God’s will that we should hear and preach Christ crucified in our churches. Pray for spiritually mature leaders who will assist your pastor in proclaiming the Gospel of Christ in your church.
6 Dear Lord, how great is your love for each one of your people. Lord, You want each of us to know you, not just know about You. This morning as we worship, help us to just reach out to You	7 Today, Dear Father, I give thanks to you regardless of my circumstances. I praise You, I love You, and will continually depend on you to continue the work You have started in me.	8 Lord, when things do not seem to be going our way, be our fortress and our refuge. We need Your assurance that all things work toward good for those who love You.	9 Pray for our state and national leaders. Pray about leaders in your church. Pray about the church, a body of believers that God is assembling to do the work he wants done.	10 Many have lost or never had the fullness of Christ in their lives. Lord, we pray for a wonderful rediscovery of Jesus in our lives that gives us focus, fullness and fulfillment.	11 Lord, let me not forget how completely dependent I really am on You. I am in Your hands! You created me, Lord, and I trust You for my daily bread. I trust You for my care.	12 Pray for the healing of all who are ill. Plant within us the desire to minister to their needs. Show us how we can minister to them to strengthen their resolve and their faith.
13 Dear Lord, teach us to praise You. Let praise stemming deep in our hearts flow freely from our lips. We bless you Lord, and commit to let praise flow from our lips and our life every day.	14 Dear Lord, You are able to do so much more in our lives than we can ever imagine. I pray that those things limiting Your work in our lives be removed & we experience your real power today!	15 Father, when the world was dark, You created the sun to give us light by day. When our souls were in darkness, You sent Jesus to light our lives and deliver us. Praise and glory to God!	16 Lord, let your people see that I am Your disciple by the way I treat those I meet each day. Help me to always show respect, kind feelings and a spirit of welcome to all I meet.	17 Pray that God will help you broaden your horizons so that you can see things from the perspective of Christ. Cultivate your spiritual life with daily prayer and draw strength from God.	18 Lord, give me a heart for prayer. Prepare me with prayer as a farmer prepares soil for planting. Instill in my heart the desire to do Your will. Assure me of Your constant care.	19 Father, You give us the ability to produce wealth. Help us overcome pride when we are blessed with abundance. Help us remember You give us everything. Help us be good stewards.
20 The people of Jerusalem missed the point of Jesus’ Palm Sunday entry into the city. Pray about the signs around you and in your life that tell you of the presence of God today.	21 Father, help us to put away petty things in our churches. Teach us to be communities who support one another and concentrate on learning and doing Your will.	22 After Peter had denied Jesus three times, he wept bitterly. Pray that God will reveal to you how you may have denied and failed to recognize God’s holiness and cry out for forgiveness.	23 Today, focus on the new commandment Jesus gave His disciples, to love one another as He loved them. Pray about what this means to you. Pray about how you can implement it today.	24 Maundy Thursday. On this day, focus on and remember the last supper Jesus had in the upper room with His disciples when He instituted Holy Communion. Pray about what this means to you.	25 On this Good Friday, let us remember Christ’s suffering and death on the Cross. Ask God to give you new understanding of Jesus’ sacrifice for us. Thank Him for your victory.	26 Pray for a renewed heart and mind. All your preparations for Easter will have been in vain if in some way your life, your heart and your actions have not been changed. Pray for transformation.
27 Resurrection Sunday. Praise the Holy name of Jesus. My Lord, Your love and sacrifice has filled us with hope. I am captivated by Your all encompassing peace. To God be the glory for ever and ever!	28 Lord, sometimes You choose to calm the storm and sometimes You calm the child in it. Lord, when we are in the midst of the storm, help us to know that the center of Your will is our safety.	29 Dear God, inspire us. Don’t let our lives pass by day after day with no real purpose. Life is precious. Help us to use each day so that it has meaning and is a token of our praise for Your mighty glory.	30 Take time to reflect on the beauty of God’s creation. Lord, You have adorned our world with wondrous beauty. We often fail to see that beauty because we simply do not take time to look at and see Your handiwork.	31 Dear Lord, I thank You. Danger is all around me today but I know I am secure in your power. My world may tremble, yet I know that You are my God and You will hold me in the hollow of Your hand.	View or download this calendar on the Unity website: unityofthebrethren.org Click on “calendar” “Events” & “DPC”.
