I am in Your hands! You created me, Lord, and I trust You for my daily bread. I trust You for my care.	2 Pray that God will help you broaden your horizons so that you can see things from the perspective of Christ. Cultivate your spiritual life with daily prayer and draw strength from God.
3 Pray about your worship experience. Has it become more habit than praise and worship of God. Praise God today. Thank Him for all that He has done. Pray for renewal and refreshment in your worship offering.	4 Just as Jesus is willing and able to forgive us our sins, pray that love might wash over into your life as you deal with people who may have wronged and hurt you. Pray understanding and for the power to forgive.	5 Lord, so many of our problems and struggles in the church stem from the fact that pride makes us think that we can solve and fix everything by our own power. Humble us that we totally depend on You, Dear Father.	6 Pray through Psalm 67. Pray about God's intention to bring redemptive blessing to every people so that He may redeem a people from every people. Pray about your role in this...your church's role.	7 Pray that you might clearly understand the difference of being "in church" and being "the church." Pray that God will reveal to you those things that hinder your growth to spiritual maturity.	8 Dear Lord, show us the reality of our need and the reality of Your answer to that need. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, show us clearly what the Father is doing in our lives. May that assurance empower.	9 Pray today that each of us might humble ourselves and desire to know God more intimately. Pray that our faith might expand and grow to embrace a God bigger than the one we know now. God is great!
10 Dear Lord, You have ensnared us in the wonderful net of Your purpose. We are no longer alone. We no longer face the darkness of our sin. You have rescued us and we praise and worship You mightily	11 Romans 12: 20 tells us to be compassionate to our enemies and in so doing we will heap coals of fire on their head. Pray for those who hurt you or wrong you. Pray God's will for them that He will change them.	12 God clearly reveals the solution to our personal struggles and the struggles of our churches in His word, the Bible. Pray that more and more people in our Unity are drawn to daily seeking God's word in the Bible.	13 Today, pray about how God has called each of us to live our lives as a bold act of hope. Pray for lives of hope to face great evil with relentless courage. Pray for grasping the hope we have in Jesus victory.	14 Pray about multiplication of the church. Father, you formed the church, as a living thing, to represent Your Son's character and to reproduce His Spirit's fruit in every part of the world. May it be so!	15 The only way we can fully love and minister to people is to draw to God's strength. Dear God, we seek the strength to love others. Teach us to love with compassion, even when we also need compassion.	16 Dear God, inspire us. Don't let our lives pass by day after day with no real purpose. Life is precious. Help us to use each day so that it has meaning and is a token of our praise for Your mighty glory.
17 Father, I celebrate You today for who You are and what You have done for me. I worship You today with the heart of Mary. (see John 12:3) May my worship today be as a sweet fragrance.	18 Today, Dear Father, I give thanks to you regardless of my circumstances. I praise You, I love You, and will continually depend on you to continue the work You have started in me.	19 Dear Lord, Oh, how marvelous it is, each of us is God's child. He delights in blessing us because He bought us with the precious blood of His Son, Jesus. Lord, bless me as I bless others.	20 Jesus went to the Garden of Gethsemane for a quiet place to pray. Pray about making time to be in silence in a place when you can give that space of time to God; to be with your Father.	21 Father, when the world was dark, You created the sun to give us light by day. When our souls were in darkness, You sent Jesus to light our lives and deliver us. Praise and glory to God!	22 Spend time in prayer in preparation for what God is seeking to communicate with you this week. Pray, meditate and don't forget to allow yourself important time to listen.	23 Lord, You know that that there are times I come into Your house of worship and pray out of habit. Tomorrow, I will earnestly seek to worship knowing You are there listening &amp; transforming.
24 Pray that our worship today is anything but lukewarm. Lord, stir the embers of our passion so that it becomes a flame worthy of Your holiness. Burn away all that obscures our vision.	25 Dear Father, Oh that I pray for the wisdom to fix my eyes upon You; surrender my soul, mind, will and emotions. Give me Your fountain of life that my success may be Your success.	26 Dear God, inspire us when we lose enthusiasm. Let the knowledge of Christ's love and presence in our life enable us to transform routine tasks into joyful service.	27 Dear Lord, how great is your love for each one of your people. Lord, You want each of us to know you, not just know about You. This morning as we pray help us to just reach out to You	28 Father, You give us the ability to produce wealth. Help us overcome pride when we are blessed with abundance. Help us remember You give us everything. Help us be good stewards.	29 Father, help us to put away petty things in our churches. Teach us to be communities who support one another and concentrate on learning and doing Your will &amp; what you commanded.	30 Think about and pray about the Resurrection Day we celebrated last month. Praise God that Jesus rose again that we might have eternal life. Praise God for this eternal gift.
