| 1 Let us thank God for His goodness. Let us praise Him with our words and song declaring His glory. Let us move beyond praise and worship him mightily with our heart in spirit and in truth. | 2 Labor Day today. This is a good time to focus on how we use our time. Pray for God's direction of your priorities. Pray about other important priorities in addition to your work. Such as time with God and family. | 3 Thank You Jesus, for being alive in me today. May people see the evidence of Your presence by what I say and do. Let my actions be the aroma of Your presence living in me. Lord, empower me. | 4 Our prayers are powerful and necessary and they do protect us; our nation and church. Let us not grow weary as worldwide attacks on the church increase. Let us pray and fear not and look to Your power. | 5 Father, we pray for the continued renewing of our minds. Help us see thru false reality rooted in muddled worldviews. Let us not allow our ears to be tickled by feel good untruth. Manifest Your glory in us, Your servants | 6 Father, many churches and their leaders/pastors have grown weary. Send a second wind to refresh and energize. Inspire a new birthing of changed lives that will be clearly evident to all peoples in our communities. | 7 Synodical Committee meets today. Pray for the presence of the Holy Spirit to invade that meeting and give guidance of God's will for the Unity. Lord, send and nurture a renewed sense of passion. |
| 8 Let us be still and know that You are God. Let us focus our heart, mind, spirit and body on Your manifest presence. God, we want more of You in our lives; more of Your Holy fullness. | 9 The times are troubled and there is little peace in the world. Prince of Peace, we thank You that we can count on Your everlasting presence to give us hope and peace. We are in Your hands. | 10 Lord, we are thankful that You can use "cracked pots" like us; that You don't require perfection because Your potters hand continues to mold us renewing us as Your servants. | 11 Lord, every day that I live, Your love amazes me. I am undeserving, yet You bless me. I know even now, I am on the edge of new opportunities You have prepared for me. Faith to possess them! | 12 God has many good gifts He wants to give us. They are not always the things we want. Pray for discernment. Pray for the good gift of the Holy Spirit to guide you in all that you do. | 13 Pray that your church and all Brethren churches will become actively involved in reaching out to people in their community. Move us to action outside the walls of the church. | 14 Seek out and pray for those who grieve. Lord, give us words to meet their needs...or no words and the commitment of our presence. Pray for God's healing hand upon them. |
| 15 As we come to You in worship, Father, renew us and sweep the junk out of our lives. Renew our faith. Give us the wisdom to be true servants submitting to Your direction. We want to bring glory to Your name. | 16 Let me remember this day that the only sure foundation for my life is one built on Christ. Lord, help me look deep into my life and see my errors and what I need to do to correct those errors; be a better follower of Christ. | 17 Father, You have made clear to us Your desire for obedience in our lives. Help us to put away any hint of immorality, impure actions and greed in order that Your power can fully flow through us. | 18 "Blessed is he who considers the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. The Lord will preserve him...keep him alive and he will be blessed on earth; You will not deliver him to...his enemies". (Ps. 41: 1 , 2) | 19 Lord, beginning today I will make an extra effort to give priority to prayer and Bible study. So often, I have allowed the less important things in my schedule crowd out my time with You. Help me with my priorities. | 20 Children are now back in school. Pray unceasingly for your children, grandchildren, children in church and your neighborhood. Pray that parents provide spiritual nurture. Pray for Holy Spirit's action. | 21 The just shall live by faith. If we have all the facts, then there is no faith involved. When God asks you to step out in faith, He will expect you to step out in the integrity of His word. Pray about what this means to you. |
| 22 Father, may our worship affect every facet of our lives. Open our ears to hear Your direction. May the hearing and following of Your direction bring fragrance to our lives. | 23 Lord, help us discern needs of people we disciple. Alert us to seek Your guidance about what you desire for a person's life. Let us always seek Your direction and power. | 24 Lord, we call ourselves "followers of Christ." Direct us in the big and little things. We depend on You for raising children, relating to spouses & all relationships; work/home. | 25 Yes Lord, I believe I am Your workmanship and I yield myself to Your goodness. Cause me to be all you have in Your heart for me to be dear Jesus and I give You all the glory. Amen | 26 There are so many distractions and temptations that draw us from what the Lord desires for us. Lord, don't let "feel good" false doctrine draw us away from our true destiny. | 27 Lord, thank You for giving us the Bible. A book of wisdom and direction for how we are to live our lives. Let me proudly say This is my Bible. Here, I will seek direction for my life. | 28 Jesus came to set captives free. Pray empowerment for our churches to work in freeing people from fears and addictions replacing them with spiritual health and a sense of new life. |
| 29 The Lord calls us into His presence for a meeting when we come to worship Him. Let us worship Him daily, not only on Sunday. Give Him glory and praise and He will nurture us. | 30 Heb. 3:13 speaks of us encouraging one another. Lord, surely, someone will cross my path who needs encouragement. Make me sensitive to such need and how to respond. | PRAYER FOCUS "Lord, I repent for wanting Your blessings without desiring your fire. I ask for the fire that purifies, that → | burns away my old nature. I ask that You fill me with the fire of Your holiness.
