President Koslovsky made an announcement about the Church By-Laws. He stated that the Unity is a non-profit 501c3 organization. As such, each congregation is connected to the Unity. Each church needs to look at their By-laws regarding church property. Each church owns their own property, but in case a church disbands it should be stated specifically where the property / assets would go – should be to the Unity of the Brethren. You cannot divide it up among yourselves; it needs to go to another 501c3. Each congregation is asked to submit their By-Laws to the Executive Committee. We want to make sure we are operating as a corporation. By-Laws may be sent to Larry and to Liz Ripple. Anytime a church changes or updates their bylaws, a copy should be sent to the Unity.

A Resolution to Sell Property was adopted for President Koslovsky to proceed on the Unity's behalf with the sale of the Austin Brethren Church property. The Executive Committee met on June 29, 2022, and discerned that the Austin Brethren congregation was no longer feasible, primarily because of resources, not managing a proper membership list, AC needs repair and there was very low worship attendance. The last service was held July 3, 2022. An offer has been made of $1.7 million to buy the property. The Church and Land amounts to 2.3 acres. All valuables have been removed.

The Executive Committee made the decision to do something with the 3 lots in Cade Lake that have been vacant. We did not have insurance on the property and the lots were not attached to the church. Rev. Mark Sebek oversaw the cleaning up of the lots. A realtor was contacted, and the lots were sold for $25,000.00. After fees, we deposited $22,745.00. We received the property through a donation for Home Missions. The Home Missions Board will make a recommendation on where to put the funds and come back to us. A motion was made and approved to move the money to Home Missions.

President Koslovsky reported that Pastor Lisa Johnson, who had a 1-year license to serve at Westheimer Community Church retired in August 2022. Aaron Thomas has been filling the pulpit at the church. The Credentials committee has said he was good to go for pulpit supply and needs to be approved for this. Pastor Aaron is married with 5 children. He just finished his Masters' degree at Houston Therapon Seminary & Bible College. He shared his beliefs about women in pastor roles and gave references to Titus and Timothy in the Bible. He will continue to do pulpit supply at Westheimer. We will begin the 6-month acquaintance period.

A report was given from Kent Laza, Hus School Board of Trustees Chair on the Hus Encampment Building Program. The Board received a $10K donation from the Baletka family to purchase tables for the camp. The Board is interested in purchasing about 12 acres of land that adjoins the camp. The owner, Edwin Hlavaty, recently passed away. The boys' and girls' dorms need to be replaced and they would also like to build a staff dorm and medical office building. The dorms would each cost $520K and the medical office building $703K. A road and parking area would add to the cost. The old caretakers house is currently used for storage and plans are to turn it into a welcome center and a place to have small meetings. It would cost $80K to remodel and update. Approval was given for the Board to start fundraising efforts for these projects. The Board would like to have all funds received before starting any of the projects. A motion and second to hold a minimum of $700K out of the sale of the Austin church with the caveat that the staff building be called "the Austin house" was tabled until the Spring meeting in April.

Rev. James Hejl attended the Southern Province Synod of the Moravian Church that was held in Winston Salem, NC at Winston Salem State University on June 1-4, 2022. Over 230 delegates were in attendance and represented congregations of the Southern Province. Almost 40 proposals were adopted during the Synod. Rev. Hejl was assigned to the Adult Educational Ministry and Practice Committee, serving as an advisory delegate with voice privileges only. His expenses of $406.20 were approved to be paid.

Bro. Larry reported that the Jan Hus Documentary is in the editing stage. We gave a $5,000.00 donation (3-3-2018) to help with the filming. This is a project by the Moravian Church that had a projected cost of $30,000.00. Rev. Hejl participated in the filming. Hopefully it will be ready to view by the 2023 Convention.

You are the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything You might be preminent. # Hus: The Journey's End

By Jim Pokorny

The ceremonial degradation of Hus continued with the removal of his priestly vestments. The malice of his tormentors increased with each successive article. When it came time to desecrate his tonsure (the style of hair symbolic of the priesthood), a protracted debate arose as to how this should be done. Some clamored for a razor while others favored the use of shears. The faction in favor of shears prevailed and his tonsure was cut in four directions effectively defacing the remaining earthly symbol of his priesthood.

A tall paper cap was brought forth that depicted three devils struggling with each other for the soul of Hus. Prominent was the Latin phrase: "Hic est haeresiarcha" (This is the arch-heretic). As this insult was placed upon the head of Hus, the Bishops were heard to say, "Thus we deliver your soul to the devil!" Hus clasped together his hands, lifted his gaze heavenward and replied, "But I commit it to my most gracious Lord Jesus Christ! For my sake he bore, though innocent, a much harder and heavier crown of thorns; why should

I, a poor sinner, not wear this lighter though blasphemous one for His name's and truth's sake?"

With the formal degradation ceremony concluded, Hus was handed over to the secular authorities for execution. The order was passed from Sigismund to the Elector to the burgher-master to the bailiffs and finally to the executioners who were waiting.

Hus was first taken to the square to witness the burnings of his writings. This was a futile gesture. While it is possible that all copies within Constance might have been accounted for, there were certainly many more copies within the Czech lands. In a wanton display of authority, Hus was placed between two servants of the Elector and guarded by a detachment of one thousand armed men. A large crowd followed as Hus was led to his place of martyrdom. He showed no sign of weakness. Accounts indicate that he never wavered and was sure of step along the way.

At last, the spot was reached.

When they neared the stake, Hus knelt and prayed both the thirty-first and fifty-first Psalms. All who witnessed this were deeply moved. The executioners ordered him to rise. Hus obeyed with these words: "Lord Jesus Christ, this cruel and terrible punishment I will cheerfully and humbly bear for the sake of Thy holy Gospel and the preaching of Thy blessed Word!" Hus wished to address the multitude, but this was refused by the Elector who commanded that the sentence be conducted without delay. Hus was bound to the stake with moistened thongs and a heavy chain was wound around his neck. A combination of dry wood, wet straw and pitch were stacked around him ultimately reaching his chin.

Hus was given a final opportunity to recant in exchange for his life. Hus refused. In unwavering voice, he clearly stated, "What shall I recant not being conscious of any errors? I call God to witness that I have neither taught nor preached what has been falsely laid to my charge, but that the end of all my preaching and writings was to induce my fellowmen to forsake sin. In the truth which I have proclaimed, according to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the exposition of holy teachers, I will, this day, joyfully die." As the torch was applied, Hus began to sing:

"Christ, Thou Son of the living God, have mercy upon us!

Christ, Thou Son of the living God, have mercy upon me!

Thou who wast born of the Virgin Mary --- "

It was at this point that the wind blew the flames into his face and the voice of Hus was heard no more.

When the flames died down, the executioners' work resumed. The remains of Hus were removed from the charred stake. His bones were ground to powder as neither church nor state wanted anything of Hus to survive intact and become a relic around which people could rally. One legend stated that the heart of Hus survived the initial conflagration only to be impaled by a spear and roasted in the remaining fire. The ash and bone were cast into the Rhine River.

Hus was gone. But his teachings lived on in the catechisms of the Ancient Unity of the Brethren. And although there were those who tried to erase him from living memory, we gratefully continue to acknowledge this martyr for Christ.

Brethren Youth Retreat Walk the Walk: Do Something

Twenty-one youth came together at the camp in January to learn what it means to be covered in grace by a forgiveness that cannot be earned and cannot run out, offered by a God that doesn't give up on us. We were challenged to live unashamed of the Gospel and let others see Jesus through our actions.

We will all go to different places, hold different positions, and serve different purposes, but we all have the same calling: to share the message of God's love and forgiveness with everyone we meet. EVERYONE needs to know that they can be covered by God's amazing grace!

Join us in praying for those who will receive a blanket we made. Pray not only that the blankets will provide physical warmth, comfort, and joy, but that they will touch the hearts of those who recommended them with God's love.

2642 bookmarks for Terry Mikeska's upcoming mission trip to Nepal. The bookmarks were purchased with donations from the Wall congregation as well as funds from the Christian Sisters. Three hundred thirty-seven of the bookmarks were hand made by children and adults of the church.

Through the generosity of individuals and local churches, the Terry Mikeska Foundation has provided thousands of Bibles and Bible story books to churches in the villages being served. Leaves and sticks are commonly used to mark pages. Terry suggested the bookmark project to Sharon Hohmann, president of the Wall Christian Sisters. Last year, socks and caps were provided.

Terry Mikeska is a former businessman, a professional pianist, and the long-time care-giver of San Angelo philanthropist Eva Camunez Tucker. He grew up in the Wall Brethren Church and is currently serving as a member of the Board of Elders,

In an effort to help those in need, Terry went to Nepal where, with the help of many local volunteers, immediate relief was provided to many Nepalese villages. Basic life sustaining items such as rice pots, rice, clothing, water holding tanks, educational supplies, and financial aid were distributed directly to the people. In subsequent trips, Bibles and guitars were provided, restrooms and churches were built.

The Terry Mikeska Foundation, a non-profit 501(C)(3) organization, was formed to enable continued assistance to the Nepalese and other nations rebuilding from natural disasters, as the devastating earthquake in Nepal several years ago.

Sunday School Helper

We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.
Hebrews 6:19a

There seem to be two types of people in this world. Those who like to fish and those who don't. Where do you fall? Many of the disciples were fishermen. Have you ever noticed that fishermen are usually very optimistic people? Even if nothing is biting, they keep fishing, they keep going back! This month's activities are going to focus on optimism and biblical hope, even in the storms of life. Biblical hope is optimistic, but it is based on truth. Biblical hope is based on God's promises in Christ.

Storms and Anchors

Materials: Anchor (or picture of an anchor), boat (or picture of a boat), wire coat hanger, string, helium balloon with a weight

Show the pictures. Ask: What is this? What is it used for? (Anchor, keeps the boat from floating away.) How does it work? (It's really heavy.)

Demonstrate how an anchor works. (Tie a string to a wire hanger and drag it until it catches on a chair leg. Show how the hanger is now "anchored" to the chair.) Explain: You can only move so far from where it is anchored. An anchor on a ship is much larger and heavier. Some anchors hold ships up to 200 times their own weight. Some anchors weigh as much 60,000, that's as much as a family of elephants!

Read: Hebrews 6:13-20. God is unchanging. His love, compassion, patience, mercy, and goodness never change. He promised Abraham he would bless his family, and he kept that promise. (Review the story of Abraham, if needed)

Bring out the balloon with the weight at the bottom. Say: Let's pretend this balloon is ship at sea and the weight at the bottom is an anchor. A storm is coming so the crew throws an anchor overboard. Ask two volunteers to hit at the balloon (to be the storm). Explain: The ship was tossed around by the storm, but it always came back to the center. It didn't leave its anchor. The anchor kept it safe and secure. Life can toss us around. What are some "storms" we encounter? (being sick, moving, fighting with siblings or friends) Even when we encounter hard things, storms, we know that God is with us. Our connection is Jesus and His love gives us hope.

GAME

Captain of the Ship

The leader will be “Captain of the ship.” The Captain will give orders to the crew (the club members) to follow.

Bow—Crew members run to the “front” of the boat.

Stern—Crew members run to the “back” of the boat.

Port—Crew members run to the “left side” of the boat.

Starboard—Crew members run to the “right side” of the boat.

Hit the Deck—Crew members lie down on the ground.

Attention on Deck—Salute the captain and yell, “Aye, aye captain!”

Scrub the Deck—Crew members get on their hands and knees and pretend to scrub the floor.

Three in a Lifeboat—Crew members grab two partners and stand one in front of the other, facing the same direction. They will pretend to row like they are in a lifeboat.

Crow’s Nest—Crew members must pretend that they are climbing up to the crow’s nest.

Captain’s Quarters—Crew members run to the captain.

ANCHOR WATERCOLOR

Materials: white crayon (or white glue), white paper, watercolors (blues, greens), paintbrushes

Preparation: Use a white crayon (or white glue) to draw an anchor outline on white paper. You will need one per student. Allow students to paint over the anchor outline with the watercolors. The anchor will show through as the students paint.

Needed: FRIENDS OF THE BRETHREN JOURNAL

– from the editor

The Brethren Journal has been publishing life and activities of the Unity of the Brethren in Texas for over 100 years. All of these include records of weddings, baptisms, deaths, etc., of the ministers... when they were submitted. These records are invaluable for families who wish to research their family history or activities that have taken place in our congregations and the denomination. It would be fitting, in the eyes of the Brethren Journal Business Committee, to ask for financial support for the continuation of this publication.

If you wish to become a special FRIEND OF THE BRETHREN JOURNAL, please send your donation to the Business Manager (address inside front cover). These donations are tax deductible.
