I am at a loss to describe my emotions when I consider how you can love me.	2 Pray 2 Tim. 2:19. Father, we thank You that You know those who are Yours. We confess Your name and focus all of our efforts in turning away from wickedness. We praise Your name.
3 Pray Ezekiel 34:2. Pray for pastors, the shepherds of their flocks who have a special duty to take care of their flocks. Lord, clarify Your call to our pastors and empower them to know Your will.	4 Independence Day today. Lord God, we thank You for freedom. Thank You that through the blood of Your Son, we receive the freedom that comes from knowing our sins are truly forgiven.	5 Dear Jesus, teach me step by step how to get my house in order. Lead me in checking the foundation for my life so that it is firmly supported by scripture, love and unity. Let my light shine!	6 God desires that the entire world will worship Him. There will be need for missionaries as long as there are people in the world not worshipping God. Pray about what this means to you.	7 Lord Jesus, I have allowed corruption to seep into my mind. Help me renew it. Cleanse my tongue and my lips that I may speak with Your power. Take away any doubt with holy faith.	8 Father, I am not skilled to understand. I only know that at my right hand, is one who is my Saviour. Lord Jesus, there is much I don't understand. In blind faith, I fully trust You.	9 For that someone who is facing a crisis; family, job, relationship, health. The enemy seeks to wear down your mind and strength and separate you from your only source of hope. Jesus!
10 Jesus, You intended our churches to be bakeries of the bread of life. Instead of a few remaining crumbs, let us again be witness to the aroma of the bread of life. Pray about feeding the spiritually hungry masses in our communities.	11 Jesus taught that the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart. (see Matt 12:34) Lord, we pray about the condition of our heart. We can't fix our words without fixing our hearts. Help us Lord to accept the new heart You so freely give us.	12 To those who are living less than fruitful lives, God is willing to open doors for us when we are faithful. Pray for strength to pursue God's desires and God's purposes for your life. Give testimony when God opens doors for you.	13 Lord, Your command that we forgive those who wrong us can challenge us to the fullest. Lord, only you can give us the the power to forgive and the sweet peace that follows the resulting freedom of shedding the baggage of unforgiveness..	14 Jesus! Jesus! Ignite within us the sheer joy of expectation of what You are going to do through us. Awake O' sleeper and arise from the dead and Christ shall shine upon you and give light. Christ, Your glorious church!	15 Lord, You told us to go into the world and preach the Gospel. What is my role? To be one who goes out into the mission field? To be a sender and encourager? A financial supporter? A prayer intercessor?	16 Pray for our troupes now serving in many places in the world. Lord, Pray Psalm 91 for them that God will shelter them from harm. Pray that God will change the hearts of terrorists. Lord, be the refuge to those in harms way.
17 As you worship today, focus your mind and heart in worshipping in spirit and truth. Lord, send renewal and revival that we might reach the slumbering masses who do not know Your power.	18 Lord, there is much need that surrounds us in our communities and in the world. Today, make me aware of some need that I can meet and in so doing, make me more Christlike. Give me a servant heart.	19 Exodus 24:7 tells us that we will obey and hear. Lord, we have difficulty with obedience. How can we hear if we do not obey. Teach us obedience to Your Word and help us to hear You.	20 Pray that whatever circumstances you face, you will not be robbed of your joy. Rejoice in knowing that regardless of how bad things may seem, God is your strength and redeemer.	21 Pray that God's presence will dwell with families who are leaving home for vacations. Pray that these times of leisure be times for strengthening of families and times for growing closer to God.	22 Lord, there are times when we tried to reach out to You and we heard nothing. Was it because our mind was filled with other things. Holy Spirit, clear minds that we may hear.	23 Lord, too often, I try to do things my way without consulting You in prayer. Remind me of my brokenness and helplessness. I need You Lord to hear my prayers and show me "how".
24 Father, we gather as a church today. Teach us Your ways in bringing about reconciliation. 31 Pray that you will let God's love for you influence everything you think or do today.	25 For that someone whose dreams have been put on hold, Lord, empower them to keep pushing forward. Don't let their setbacks steal their zeal for the Lord. Don't let Satan steal what is rightfully theirs.	26 Dear ones, the evil one entices us to camp where we are. Lord, don't let us be stuck in an unhealthy place. Awaken us that we may see that You have much more for us. Innumerable blessings waiting for us.	27 Lord, when our souls seem empty and we thirst for Your presence, fill us with Your love that we may be complete again. Then, empower us to do the work that You have set out for each of us.	28 Pray for a sense of humility and the strength to be obedient to God. Let obedience be our act of praise and worship to our mighty God. Help us overcome pride and make us more Christ-like.	29 Read Acts 28: 26-27 and pray about how this might have implications for Brethren churches, perhaps even your church. Lord, help us to see clearly what You desire of us and the Body of Christ.	30 Church leaders, realize that it is your duty to equip your church family with the tools to address the spiritual battle we are in. Teach them knowledge of Scripture. Recognize counterfeit truths.
